

I am a police officer that works the 3rd shift. I am not a big fan of the phone because it rings constantly while I try to sleep. I am a big supporter of the NJ do not call list and I don't want it changed. If I need a product or service I have a phonebook and can look it up myself.